BROWN
DANCE COMPANY

Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival 2011

"Brown at her most tantalizing...dartingly quick but so fluid that the body seems a conduit for flowing energy."

- The New York Times

Trisha Brown's pioneering style is a cornerstone of modern dance and her famed artistic collaborations continue to provoke. To celebrate her company's 40th anniversary, Jacob's Pillow presents the range of Brown's invention with a program including the 1983 work Set and Reset, an American masterpiece with sets and costumes by famed visual artist Robert Rauschenberg and music by the experimental Laurie Anderson.

Her world-renowned company also performs Les Yeux et l'âme, the dance suite from Jean-Philippe Rameau's one-act opera Pygmalion, and Foray Forêt in which dancers hurtle, slide, and dive to booming marching band music by John Philip Sousa. — Don't miss this legend of dance.
