WITH $100,000 FROM BARR FOUNDATION, JACOB’S PILLOW DANCE TO EXPAND ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMMING IN BERKSHIRE COUNTY AND NEW ENGLAND

March 22, 2017—(Becket, MA) Jacob’s Pillow Dance announces the receipt of a $100,000 grant from the Barr Foundation to expand and create new programs engaging local Berkshire County residents, organizations, and businesses. The funding will also allow the Pillow to plan and implement dance field convenings in 2017 and 2018, offering new and necessary resources to the larger arts community.

“This generous funding from the Barr Foundation will enable the Pillow to engage with our local community more deeply and serve as a convener for the dance field in New England and beyond,” says Jacob’s Pillow Director Pamela Tatge.

Funding from the Barr Foundation enables Jacob’s Pillow Dance to expand its free offerings for community members and create opportunities for Berkshire residents to connect with Pillow artists in both onsite and offsite performances, workshops, classes, and other participatory events. In addition, the funding helps to launch new programs at the Pillow including the Dancing Berkshires Fund, which offers discounted Festival performance tickets to students enrolled in schools and dance studios in Berkshire County. Based on its successful Curriculum in Motion program offered in Berkshire County schools, the Pillow will pilot a program in kinesthetic learning for adults working in medical settings in partnership with Berkshire Medical Center, Volunteers in Medicine, and dance educators.

Funding from the Barr Foundation will also allow the Pillow to host three new convenings, creating a space for growth and development for the wider dance community. Beginning this fall, the Pillow will develop and host regional and national convenings, including a gathering of New England choreographers in the fall of 2017. In summer 2018, the Pillow also plans to revive the Dance Presenters’ Forum with the Association of Performing Arts Presenters, Dance/USA, and New England Foundation for the Arts—a program with a long and successful track record dating back to the 1990s. Support from Barr is also assisting in the creation of the Jacob’s Pillow College Partnership Program, serving dance faculty and students from regional colleges and universities. This partnership will offer opportunities for educators to engage more deeply with the Pillow’s resources including the Creative Development Residencies program and its renowned Archives in their research and pedagogy, as well as take advantage of its prestigious Internship Program.
